

From: Todd Harry <todd.harry@education-portal.com>

Date: 2011/8/26

Subject: Education Resource Awards Nominations

To:

Hello,

My name is Todd Harry, I'm the Public Relations Manager for Education-Portal.com. We thought you'd be an excellent candidate to suggest nominations for our upcoming Education Resources People's Choice Awards.

In keeping with our commitment to education, Education-Portal.com is spotlighting the best resources that help make education accessible for students, teachers, and lifelong learners. Among the categories included are:

- Best Educations News Website
- Best Open Education Resource
- Best Student Tips
- Best Education Blog
- Best College Rankings

For a full list of our categories and to submit your nominations, go to <http://eduport.al/pAqutJ>. The nomination process will close September 2nd. Feel free to nominate yourself, someone close to you, and other resources you genuinely enjoy. You do not have to make nominations in every category. Public voting will begin September 6th.

As a complement to these awards, we just closed a very successful OpenCourseWare People's Choice Awards that honored institutions such as MIT, UC Irvine, and the American Museum of Natural History. Over 16,000 votes were tallied across 10 different categories, recognizing the best OpenCourseWare initiatives world-wide. You can see them at <http://eduport.al/pbcWDV>.

Again, we hope you'll join us in recognizing the best education resources around the world at <http://eduport.al/pAqutJ>. If you have questions about the awards, do not hesitate to email or call me at 650-962-1200 ext. 507. You can also learn more about Education-Portal.com by visiting our About Us page: <http://eduport.al/pd0Rvz>.

Best Regards,

Todd Harry

Public Relations Manager

Education-Portal.com

650-962-1200 ext. 507