

Call For Papers

The 5th Asia Regional OpenCourseWare and Open Education Conference (AROOC2013)

October 28th-29th, 2013,
University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

A decade has passed since MIT announced the concept of OpenCourseWare to the public. Nowadays more than 250 universities have published 22,000 courses and more from all over the world. In 2012 Paris OER Declaration has been approved and published to foster OER activities more. In many Asian countries various activities related to Open Education have been emerging in recent years as well. In November 2009, "The 1st Asia Regional OCW Conference 2009" was held as the first conference in Seoul, Korea hosted by Korea University and Korea OCW Consortium (KOCWC) and in November 2010, "The 2010 Asia Regional OpenCourseWare and Open Education Conference" was held as the second conference in Taipei, Taiwan hosted by National Chao Tung University and Taiwan OCW Consortium (TOCW). In November 2011, "The 2011 Asia Regional OpenCourseWare and Open Education Conference" was held as the third conference in Tokyo, Japan hosted by Meiji University and Japan OCW Consortium (JOCW). In January 2013 "The 5th Asia Regional OpenCourseWare and Open Education Conference 2012" was held in Bangkok, Thailand hosted by Thailand Cyber University. Through those conferences we could share the experiences, know-how and challenges accumulated in Asian countries. Now we would like to invite many proposals to the 5th conference, Asia Regional OpenCourseWare and Open Education Conference in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, on October 28th-29th, 2013.
